Shades of Gotham:

The last remnant of doubt as to our town ever achieving the status of a city is now completely dispelled as a result of a Saturday morning con game pulled on some of our unsuspecting citizens.

A fast talking character sold several large photographs to shoppers Saturday morning for $1.00 a throw. Customers were told the photographer was "just around the corner on Main St. Drop in, have your picture taken any time." Result, no photographer of course, and upon returning to Broadway our unwary citizen found no salesman.

Fire Chief Hensley was giving his boys a live wire drill last Monday. The smoke eaters were shown how to go through a fire with a victim on his back. The trick is accomplished by a protective V of water spray his buddies play on the fire. All went well until guinea pigs Wash Tubbs and Mike Calderone went through the ordeal. Tubbs, the bottom man on the totem pole sumbled and Calderone was tossed off. The fine V spray became a roaring Niagara.

"Gad," spouted Mike, shaking himself like a water spaniel, "they're not satisfied with burning me to death, they've got to drown me too."

Incidentally, if you miss the fire demonstration coming up March 19 at the New Junior High Auditorium, you'll be sorry.

We want to thank Jim Hill of the La Mesa Scout for running our recent questionnaire "Rate Your Town" in his fine column last week. 'Twant original with us but proper credits have been given all down the line.

MAN OF THE WEEK:

Bert Betts, local accountant, school board candidate and prominent Lions Club member, who attended the Kiwanis Club meeting Wednesday. Swapped insults for ten minutes, gave a good twenty minute talk on Income Taxes and received an ovation when he had finished.

WOMAN OF THE WEEK:

Mrs. Vernier, President of the C of C. who must be spending 12 hours a day on C. of C. duties. We'll guess that within 60 days if contemplated plans jell, membership will skyrocket in that organization.

—ML—

Talk of a swimming pool for L. G. is growing every day. Could be, could be.

We enjoyed the statement made by the Centenarian (102 years old to you who haven't looked the word up in the dictionary, as I just did):

After being dined and feted he was flown to New York City where he took in all the sights and upon being asked by a reporter what he thought of all this he replied:

"It's a danged shame a man has to live to be a hundred before he gits treated like this."

Correction!

In the article pertaining to costs of groceries in various parts of the county last week the REVIEW showed that an identical list totaled in the neighborhood of $17, with some variations. Inadvertently, several of the items were omitted. A complete list is as follows:

School Board to Ask Citizen's Committee to OK Preliminary Plans

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Lemon Grove School District Monday which lasted 'til midnight, the members considered preliminary plans for the proposed new classrooms recently voted by the citizens. A subcommittee of the newly organized Citizen's Committee is being asked to review these plans at an early date while the working drawings are being prepared by the architect. Any suggestions of this committee will be considered if they are presented soon before final working plans are completed.

The committee meets on April 1 in the new auditorium on School Lane. The organizing committee of the citizens' group is scheduled to meet March 24.

The board approved administration visitation to Sacramento when the State Allocation Board meets to consider approval of the district administration building bid, and release of funds for furniture for some junior high school classrooms.

A special meeting of the board will be held this Thursday night, March 11, at which time bids on the administration building will be opened. Time of the meeting is 8:00 in the district offices on Acacia Street.

Television Star to Take Part in Big Ace Opening

Spaciousness of the Big Ace Market, which opens March 23, is indicated by a look down a center aisle. The market will contain 35,000 square feet of space and will house a full grown Swedish bakery, a package liquor store in addition to the gigantic market display and selling area. Market will hold "Open House" Wednesday, March 24 and drawings for valuable prizes will be held.

—LENOX FOTO

Open house festivities for the Lemon Grove Big Ace will be held Wednesday, March 24, it was announced this week by Jim Banister, president.

The day-long event will have many features which include drawings for free merchandise and valuable prizes. In the evening, in addition to open house festivities, a teen-age dance will be held in one corner of the huge parking area at which N.T.G. of Hollywood and television fame will act as master of ceremonies. Al Hunter, KSDO disc jockey, will spin records and distribute them among teenagers.

The Pastels, a school orchestra, will play for dancers in addition to the recordings played by Hunter. A popularity contest among the youngsters will be held with cheers measuring the degree of popularity. Winners will get a trip to Hollywood with a chance to appear on N.T.G.'s television program.

While this is going on, adults will be touring through the huge market which houses many features. A genuine Swedish bakery will be operated by Bert Brolin. Mr. Brolin once was baker for the Royal Household in Sweden by appointment of His Royal Highness King Gustav.

The huge market, which occupies almost the entire block between Broadway and Pacific and Olive and Buena Vista, has been under orders of super-rush to meet the March 24 opening deadline. E. A. Ries, well known general contractor, said that the market, one of the most beautiful in this area, would be ready and fully operating on the date specified.

The interior of the gigantic store will be tile and murals with huge mirrors strung along two complete walls. Extensive use of redwood egg-crating will give an intimate air to various departments. A large packaged-liquor department will occupy one corner of the market. Another feature is a large gleaming white kitchen in which foods will be continuously tested and served to the public. Large wide aisles and easy to shop from gondola displays will be among the outstanding features.

Banister has named Larry Childress, former manager at one of the other Big Ace stores, as Lemon Grove manager. Most of the rest of the 125 employees will be made up of Lemon Grove residents wherever possible, Banister pointed out. A preview showing for dignitaries and civic leaders will be held on Tuesday, March 23.

Huge truck and trailer vans have been plying the route to Lemon Grove all week, stocking up merchandise which will be on display when the market opens. There has been no estimate as to the number of visitors expected on opening day but Kenny Stapp, general manager, said that a special prize would be awarded to the one coming to the open house event who guesses closest to the number of customers attending the opening day ceremonies.

Grove School Cafetorium To Be Dedicated Sunday

When the new school cafetorium on School Lane in Lemon Grove is dedicated on Sunday, March 14, 2:30 p.m., Luther Hussey will act as master of ceremonies at the public dedication program. Following the presentation of the flag by Boy Scout Troop 108 of Lemon Grove, he will introduce Dr. Cecil Hardesty, San Diego County Superintendent of Schools, who will then make the dedication of the school. Acceptances will be made by Mrs. John Dail for the P-TA units and school patrons; Harry Griffen for the community; Sue Ann McDonald for the students; and Byron L. Netzley for the school staff.

Music for the program will be given by the girls' double trio and the brass sextet, both under the direction of Paul Cheatham. The invocation will be delivered by J. Morris Mulkey, pastor of the Lemon Grove First Baptist Church. Following the program, refreshments will be served by P-TA units and a general tour of the building and new sections of the junior high plant will be made.

The formal program has been arranged by the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association with Ben I. Schie, Louis Poluzzi, and Peg Darroch acting as representatives. Other groups participating in the dedication include the Music Parents Club, the School Safety Patrol, and the school secretaries. Mrs. B. L. Netzley is general chairman.

The dedication committee members include Mmes. Robert E. Brown, B. L. Netzley, Frank Armstrong, Harley Thursland, Bert Cosby, E. W. Middleton, C. Forrest Baxter, Grover McMahon, John Dail, R. C. Taylor, Edward Russell, M. D. Gardner,

Irving Vernier, president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, has announced the selection of an executive committee to study and make recommendations to the community on the problem of planning on Broadway in Lemon Grove. The study will include uniform width of the street from Quarry Road to Central Ave., grades, set-backs, parking facilities, lighting, sidewalks etc. and was suggested by the Business Men's Club as being a proper and timely undertaking for the Chamber.

Casteel's Corner To House New Building

The expanding business scene in Lemon Grove is being further enhanced by a development by George Casteel at the corner he occupied for years at Broadway and Imperial.

Beginning this week construction of a building 30 feet on Broadway and 75 feet on Imperial gets under way which will ultimately house a drug store. The building will include the front end of the location formerly occupied by Mode O'Day.

The building, designed by Charlie Salyers, architect, and built by contractor Robert Crist, will be completed early in May. The drug store will begin operations June 1.

According to George Casteel, the building will be ultra modern in design with three shadow windows along Imperial and a marquee along Broadway wrapping around the corner a short distance down Imperial.

"I have planned on having the most expensive front door in

Prizes, clowns and free merchandise made it a gala week for Piggly-Wiggly shoppers as the market marked its re-opening and expansion.

The interior of the store was completely redecorated while the facade was widened and modernized in California style.

Clarence Milbrodt, the store's manager, said that the reopening response was far greater than anticipated.

The reopening event will continue this week with drawings for the prizes to be held thru March 16. Tickets will be distributed for prizes until that date, the management said.

Lindley Gets Commendation

Bob Lindley, popular Lemon Grove druggist, received commendation from the vice-president of the Owl Drug Company this week when Sam Prusky sent word from Los Angeles that Lindley's Lemon Grove store had "done an outstanding job in its transition to a bonafide Owl-Rexall outlet."

The drug store became a full fledged merchandising outlet for Owl late last year at which time Lindley underwent a remodeling and expansion program.

Trash and Rubbish Lying Together Breed Fire

By JOHN DAIL, Callman

WHERE'S THE FIRE! ! !

All Grovans will be asking that question during Fire Prevention Week, March 15 to 19, which has been officially set as the first annual Fire Prevention Week for Lemon Grove. According to Commissioner Tom Parsons, "We intend to make this event an annual affair. The out-door demonstration Monday evening will show Lemon Grove what a splendid Fire Department they have as well as showing them what they should do in case a fire starts in their home and, most important, what they should not do." The out-door event will take place near Central Avenue between School Lane and Imperial across from the Fire Station. Starting at 7:30 p.m., and lasting about an hour and one half, the most destructive types of fires will be shown. Fire Chief H. L. Hensley promises that the event will be one of the most thrilling events to be shown to a community as large as Lemon Grove.

During Fire Prevention Week, over 3500 Home Fire Safety Check lists will be distributed by the Junior Fire Chiefs of the schools and by the merchants. Suggested by the Junior Chiefs, the Fire Department obtained these lists from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the board that sets the insurance Fire Rates for California. According to an official, this program can only result in two things—Lower fire losses for Lemon Grove and Lower Fire rates for Lemon Grove.

The famous FIRE POWER show by Naval Air Station Fire Prevention Chief Merton R. Smith, North Island, will culminate the Week. Capt. W. F. Rodee, Commandant, has granted permission to Chief Smith to present the exhibition Friday, March 19, 7:30 p.m. at the Cafetorium of the Junior High School. Everyone is urged to attend this event.

"Lemon Grove is lucky to obtain the Fire Power show," Chan Mason, chairman of the board, said. "This demonstration is usually reserved for Fire Chiefs and their officers and service personnel. If you see this show, you'll tell about it for months."

Many dollars will be spent during this Fire Prevention Week and according to Tom Parsons, Secretary of the Board of Fire Commissioners, it won't cost Lemon Grove a cent. All material used is being donated by the Fire Equipment companies and the off duty members of the Fire Department and Call-men have volunteered their services.

Lemon Grove is the center of attention during this week. We are not only helping ourselves by decreasing the possibility of deaths and injuries of our loved-ones by fire, but we are helping to create a community spirit that can unite in a common cause. Never has the enthusiasm been greater and Lemon Grove stands as a united community—Vista La Mesa, San Miguel, Monterey Heights, Golden Avenue, and American Homes — against the Destroyer—FIRE.

Rubbish, such as shown above, creates fire hazards. The smoking embers in the background of this rubbish heap is a direct result of piling too many combustibles together.

As Lemon Grove Fire Prevention Week gets under way starting Monday, the men charged with protecting life and property in Lemon Grove ask that you examine your own household and business area against fire hazards. Better still, says the fire department, call them for a courteous, helpful fireman who will give advice and guidance on reducing fire hazards.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Sometimes, when my editorial indigestion isn't too bothersome, I take an objective view of the goings-on in my community.

Attention for the moment might well be on business firms stumbling over one another to find locations along our main stem so that they may share in the fruit of merchandise labor in this town which promoters are referring to as the land of milk and honey. I can assure most of them that they can earn a living in relation to the amount of sweat they exude as a result of honest toil, but the Mother Lode is not situated along Broadway in Lemon Grove.

Recent events have indicated that a covey of new firms would open their doors soon. The Big Ace opens this month; Mt. Helix Associates are starting a two store building between Carr's and Broadway; George Casteel has started work on a building at Imperial and Broadway that will house a drug store; the property between Sprouse-Reitz and the Salvation Army is reported sold and is about to be developed; a new postoffice should be built this year and the town's bank is about to move into larger quarters.

The smart cafe boys and saloon operators are eyeing the Grove as a "hot" spot for this particular type of endeavor. At least one big time cafe operator has already gotten a jump on his fellow competitors by taking over the group of buildings opposite the Review on Main Street. The owner is Paul Mirabile, about whom several persons have made it their pointed business to say something nice to me.

Mr. Mirabile, as far as I'm concerned, is a splendid business man and has a bankroll to prove it. It's a matter of record that he owned notorious downtown drink-dine-socialize spots which include the Blue Note, and more recently, the Saratoga Grill.

He was also named as a recipient of a "Bonelli-approved" license for the Saratoga Grill in a series of articles on San Diego crime and violence in the L. A. Mirror which ran during October last year. His connection with what the Mirror calls "Bonelli's Saloon Empire" is through his brother, Tony Mirabile, who the newspaper says, owns three saloons and "is reliably known to pull strings on 25 other joints." Tony, the paper points out, is titular head of the San Diego "operations." It was Tony, they charge, who made healthy loans to a member of the San Diego police department, a California Highway Department Inspector and others. He heads up the San Diego syndicate but his grasp is slipping, they add.

There is no indication that Mr. Mirabile intends to personally open any type of business in his newly acquired property. Matter of fact, there is a sign in the building which asks interested parties to call him personally for information about renting the property.

This little excursion into personal backgrounds and habits, points up my contention that our little town is attracting some important people . . . some mighty important people.

Civil Defense Notes

Charles Gurley HO 6-3745

So many people have asked where they may obtain the CIVIL DEFENSE booklets, and heretofore we have answered merely to ask your BLOCK WARDEN but now we have arranged with two downtown places of business which will have a supply on hand at all times. These are the Chamber of Commerce which has its offices with J. B. PEARCE real estate, 4240 Main st. and with the WESTERN AUTO SUPPLY at 8720 Broadway, announced DR. FRANK GIGLIOTTI yesterday.

"It seems as though," said DR. GIGLIOTTI, "we have booklets on almost every conceivable subject, but to name a few of the most popular we think everyone should study 'EMERGENCY ACTION TO SAVE LIVES,' 'SURVIVAL UNDER ATOMIC ATTACK,' 'FAMILY FOOD SHELF and EMERGENCY MENUS' and 'FIRE SAFETY PLAN — FOR PEACE—FOR WAR.'

"While you are in picking up any of the above booklets, you may look over the others and select whichever you may be interested in. Next week you may expect to hear about what happened at our March 11th meeting.

True Substance Sunday Lesson Theme

The perfection, abundance, and substantiality of all that God has made is discussed in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Psalms (135:13): "Thy name, O Lord, endureth for ever, and thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations."

A Bible selection from Acts (8:9, 10, 12, 13) records that Simon, the sorcerer, "bewitched the people of Samaria," who said, "This man is the great power of God. . . . But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also."

San Miguel School News

A Civil Defense Commission film, "Duck and Cover," especially designed for elementary school children, was shown to the student body of San Miguel School recently. Several films concerned with fire prevention were shown to upper grade children by the Lemon Grove Fire Department.

During this warm weather, several classes have been scheduling parts of their reading classes out of doors, using the concrete patios at the door of each room. Using this enables the teacher to expand classroom facilities easily.

One new pupil enrolled at the school last week. He is Martin Pestcoe, a kindergarten pupil from the state of Washington.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR FIRE CHIEF

Your Fire Department is anxious to save your life, property and your money. During Fire Prevention Week a number of exhibitions will be made to show the dangers of fire.

Call your Department any time for an inspection of your premises. Business places will be visited as a regular tour of duty. Householders may not by law be visited without invitation.

Such an inspection, if given a superior rating, may earn for you a reduced insurance premium. In any event, it may save your valuables and your loved ones.

The Fire Department works for the community. Call on us for an inspection.

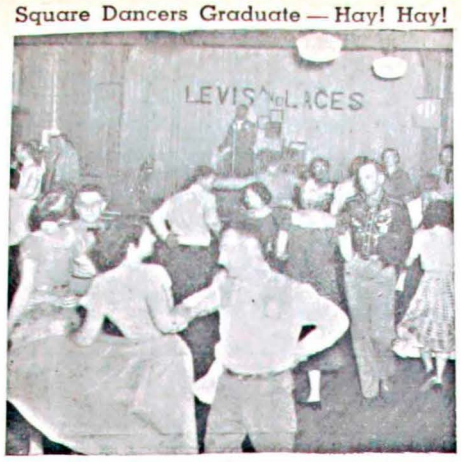
Square Dancers Graduate — Hay! Hay!



Wagon wheels! Hobby horses! Hay!—Cowboy hats and accessories, all blended together to create a Western setting for the graduation of the Levis and Laces beginners' square dance class. Ceremonies took place in the Lemon Grove Woman's Clubhouse, March 3. LENOX FOTO

Graduates and their many guests began the program by doing the Teton Mountain Stomp, and then squaring their sets for an evening of fun and frolic.

Roy Close, Dale Hamilton, Don and Juan Frank and "Hoppy" Hopkinson were guest callers for the gala occasion, and the dances they called were grand.

Exhibition dances were shown during intermission by Juanita and Roy Close, Clarence and Pearl Montgomery with Don and Juan Frank, and one by Roy Close and Juan Frank.

Clarence Montgomery, with the able assistance of his wife, Pearl Montgomery and Juan Frank, bestowed diplomas on his students entitling them the honored degree of Bachelor of Square Dancing.

Graduates were: Arnold and Belle Ariaudo, Rena and Al Barstow, Raymond and Phyllis Lothspeich, Leon and Connie Meyer, Dorothy and Tom Mitchell, Bill and Dorothy Gayeske, Clyde and Ramona Walker, Ruth and Ed Miller, Jean and Gene Johnston, Bob and Lela Grimsley, Hap and Jean Hargreaves, Estellene and LeRoy Bellwood, Norbert and Ann Gobielle, John and Helen Blecha and Philip and Audree Burch.

Club Juniors, sponsors of the Levis and Laces were hostesses for the graduation. Refreshments were served by four Juniors, dressed in western clothing. They were Sis Major, Jean Baker, Lillian Olson and Louise Calkins.

Pat OBrien to Make S. D. Appearance

The popular Irish actor Pat O'Brien will be principal speaker at the inaugural formal stag banquet of the newly organized San Diego unit of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick to be held March 17, 6:30 p.m., at El Cortez Hotel to honor the patron saint of Ireland.

One hundred business and professional men of Irish lineage comprise the local non-sectarian, non-political and non-profit group which is patterned after similar Friendly Sons clubs in all major cities of the nation.

Howard D. Barry, 2304 Berry St., Lemon Grove resident and bank executive, is a charter member of the new organization. O'Brien has been extended an invitation by Henry Goldy, operator of Michael's, to stop in St. Patrick's Day for a sip of greep champagne. The unusual colored wine is being dispensed as part of the local celebration.

Jackson Ammons To Tell About 'Package Zoning'

The Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting, Tuesday, will host Jackson Ammons, local realtor, who will give his views on the packaged zoning law now being considered by county authorities. The meeting will be held at Michael's at noon.

County Area Shrinks As Rolando is Nibbled Into S. D.

Rolando, a 640 acre tract adjacent Lemon Grove with a population of 6,000, has been annexed to San Diego as a result of an election late last month.

San Diego has begun providing police and fire protection and will offer free garbage and rubbish collection at the expiration of an existing private contract.

San Diego will also supply water and sewage service. Because a proposal for the annexation to the San Diego Unified School District failed, youngsters in the area will continue to go to the La Mesa-Spring Valley Schools.

Rolando residents will not receive tax bills until November 1955 and city sales tax will not become effective in Rolando until May 1 and city business license tax will be started probably on the same date.

The annexation will add one square mile to the present 119 square mile area of San Diego and is the largest population segment to join the city since East San Diego annexed in December, 1923.

The newly annexed territory must petition for exclusion from the La Mesa-Spring Valley-Lemon Grove Irrigation District and the Rolando Sanitation District before these services will be afforded by the city.

Arsenic and Old Lace Rehearsal Begun

The Heartland Players will hold a general meeting Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the Woman's Club, and the rehearsals for the next play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" will begin on Wednesday evening, at 8 p.m. also at the Woman's Club.

The rest of the cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be as follows: Don Carl, Mr. Gibbs and Officer Klein; Doug Myers, Officer O'Hara; Arthur Cornelius, Lt. Rooney; Richard Spry, Officer Brophy; and Sam Baxter, Mr. Witherspoon.

The play will be under the direction of Bud Coffin, with costumes by Cindy Spry and Kay Williams. Stage settings by Sam and Bill Baxter, and tickets taken care of by Mary Rhodes, with husband Bill Rhodes as stage manager. Lois Burnworth will be prop girl, and Betty Baxter is in charge of refreshments. Kay Williams and Bob Turnbull doing publicity.

Cressy Starts Yardage Library

That self-satisfied smile you see on the face of Freeborn Cressy these days is the result of a little improvement he has developed in his store during the past couple of weeks.

The store features yard goods and Freeborn devised a way to stock bolts of yardage on end, similar to books. As a result all yardage merchandise may be easily seen and is extremely easy for the sales persons to pull from the shelf to show or to measure.

"It's just like the public library," Cressy said. "Just slip the bolt out, look it over and slide it right back into place."

The store also handles ready-to-wear.

Firemen's Relief Association Honors Junior Fire Chiefs

Junior Fire Chiefs are to be presented with Fire Chief badges and awards during Fire Prevention Week. This was decided at the installation of newly elected officers of the Firemen's Relief Assoc. last week.

Presentation will be made at the Fire Power Show, Friday evening, March 19 at the Junior High Cafetorium, according to Captain Raymond Watt Carmody, newly installed president. "Since the Junior Fire Patrol is a permanent project, the badges will remain the property of the respective school," said Ed Bolieu, treasurer.

A trophy, for outstanding service, will be presented to a Junior Chief whose school has the best attendance per capita at the events to be held during the week, according to Captain Joe White, 2nd vice-president.

MRS. PAUL G. RICHARDSON

Grove Housewife Still Loves Piggly Wiggly After Seven Years of Shopping

"I'm a one-store shopper. When I came to Lemon Grove 7 years ago I had to shop from store to store to get my family's food needs filled," recalls Mrs. Paul G. Richardson, 2458 Bonita St.

"Then Piggly Wiggly came. Ever since then all my shopping is done at Piggly Wiggly.

"I like the friendly atmosphere, the helpful clerks, the wide easy-to-shop aisles.

"Everything gives the feeling of permanence. I like familiar faces. The same clerks are always here. The same manager has always been here. That inspires confidence.

"Now that the store has been remodeled it is more attractive than ever. And the new color scheme is so easy on the eyes," she said.

Ratner Recommends . . . Here's this week's recommended records by Ratner's, 745 Broadway in San Diego. "A Girl, A Girl" and "Anema E Core" by Eddie Fisher (RCA Victor). Also "Am I in Love" and "Maybe Next Time" by Joni James (M-G-M).

Long-Playing . . . Here's some more real cool L. P. records that you can purchase at Ratner's. "Glen Miller Concert" Vol. 3 (RCA Victor), "Liberace by Candlelight," (Columbia). "Al Jolson," Souvenir Vol. 5 (DECCA). "Woody Herman (and the herd) at Carnegie Hall, 1946," Vol. 2 (M-G-M). "Arthur Godfrey and his Friends," No. Cl 6113 (Columbia). "Fina's Fingers," Jack Fina at the piano. (M-G-M).

Unusual Recording . . . This week's weird wax selection is: "Oh Honey" by Gloria Wood. This is the same gal that blew up a storm singing "Hey Bellboy." Actually Gloria is California's answer to Yma Sumac.

Bozo Medicine . . . The personal appearances staged by Capitol's Bozo the Clown include visiting the wards in children's hospitals. On one such trip—to the Newington Children's Hospital, Newington, Conn.—Bozo was approached by a victim of cerebral palsy, 7 years old, who pointed at him, turned to his nurse, and said: "Look at the clown." Bozo says he thought nothing of it until the nurse caught up with him in the hall after he had left the ward. There were tears in her eyes.

"Look at the clown," it turned out, were the first words the child had ever spoken.

Basque Troop to Perform for Grossmont Concert Goers

Euzkadi, a troupe of fourteen Basque men and women singers and dancers, will unfold the exciting pageantry of the Basques for Community Concert members at Grossmont Auditorium, March 15 at 8:15 p.m. This colorful event will bring to a dramatic close the current Grossmont Concert season.

Euzkadi is the collective name used by the Basques to describe their homeland. It is significant, therefore, that they have named their performance Euzkadi, because it is a series of tableaux depicting their folk cultures. It follows no orthodox program format, for it is as unusual as the Basque people themselves. All of its music and dance are combined into a dramatic whole, an unforgettable pageant that reveals the life of the Basques in its varied aspects.

New members who subscribed recently to the 1954-55 Grossmont Concert season are entitled to attend this performance as a bonus.

L. A. Philharmonic to Close Current Season

Concluding one of its most successful local seasons, the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra plays its final concert of the current season in Russ Auditorium, Sunday evening.

Alfred Wallenstein will conduct the concert and the noted Belgian cellist, Adolphe Frezin, will be guest soloist.

Frezin, who first came to this country several years ago as a member of the famed Paganini Quartet, for 17 years occupied first chair in the Belgian National Symphony Orchestra and this year joined the Los Angeles Philharmonic.

For his San Diego appearance he will play Saint-Saens' "Concerto in A Minor" for cello and orchestra.

Wallenstein has also programmed Weber's "Overture to Der Freischutz," Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Caprice Espagnole" and Schubert's "Symphony No. 7 in C Major."

Grove Road Group Gets Honors

The trophy is given to the employee's association of the county which has done the most to advance efficiency and public understanding of county government.

George L'Heurex (pronounced Laroo) is clerk at the Lemon Grove Road Station. He is shown accepting a plaque and the Anderson-Wooster Trophy from Theo Yakel, County Planning engineer, who is president of the association. George is also a member of the exeeutive committee and director's representative of the County Employees Association.

The public has looked on county government as a burden for many years, according to the employees. But these employees know that this is not so and as public servants they state they have a great service to offer. The award is given to the county which comes nearest proving this fact.

The trophy is presented through the League of County Employee's Association which is a state-wide organization. Only those projects where the initiative and direction come from an employee's association is considered.

San Diego is the only county to which this award has been made more than once, having won it in 1950.

Spokesman for the association said that an attempt to demonstrate maturity and responsibility on the part of employees as individuals in order to bring about better administration in county services is strived for. Setting higher standards and working to meet those standards is a day by day operation, the say. The presence of the trophy, according to the spokesman, is proof that this policy is paying dividends.

The Lemon Grove County Road Station is on Waite Dr.

"Certainly some alcoholics are athletes. Why, you can see them hang on a bar and chin for hours," says Jerry Walter, Lemon Grove jeweler.

Season's Only Fire Joke Told

Stephen Westover, whose English risibilities were aroused by a joke from the home land submitted the following piece of whimsicality:

Fire fighter week reminds me, says he, of an old English joke (?). The local pub (whose presiding officer kept his charge account on a slate) caught fire. The volunteer fire brigade broke in and the first one in with the hose directed a stream of water on the fire. His companion who had a charge acount—said "Play on the slate you Bloody fool—play on the slate."

Cal-Western U Starts Fund Drive

California Western University this week started a drive for $178,000 to strengthen the school's position as the only Protestant school in an area of 1,500,000 persons.

Funds are for making campus improvements and paying off the last $100,000 of its $2,000,000-100 acre campus and buildings atop Point Loma.

The University will become affiliated with one of the large Protestant denominations after it frees itself of debt. That in turn will put it into a position to win substantial financial support from a church and from endowments from individuals and foundations.

Rev. Don Cooke, pastor of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church said that members of his organization would give local co-operation to the drive.

Lemon Grove," Casteel said. "A one inch thick glass door bound in metal will be set into the corner and will cost as much as I paid for a new auto several years ago. The Mount Helix Associates are putting in a door that costs more, so I will attempt to gracefully withdraw from my original claim to Lemon Grove's most expensive door," he chuckled.

The drug store, operated by George M. Aposhian, will boast drugs, sundries and a fountain. Mr. Aposhian operates two other drug stores in addition to the one starting in Lemon Grove. The firm name is National Pharmacy.

'Bud' James to Run for County Clerk's Office

Announcement was made this week by Robert B. (Bud) James, County Clerk, that he will be a candidate for the office in the primary election June 8. He was appointed to that post by the Board of Supervisors to fill the vacancy created when Thomas H. Sexton resigned last January because of ill health.

James began his public service career in the county clerk's office 21 years ago under the late J. Bert McLees. He was advanced to chief clerk in a promotional civil service examination in 1946, and was named chief deputy clerk by Sexton a year later.

He is a member of the California County Clerks Association and of the State Judicial Council Committee for examination of applicants for judges of the Justice Court.

In World War II, James had nearly five years service in the Army Air Force in this country and overseas. He is active in patriotic and fraternal organizations, and in YMCA affairs.

James came to San Diego in 1929, and with Mrs. James and their two children resides at 1204 Bush St.
